

TunaFish privacy statement

TunaFish respects your privacy. We have created this Privacy Statement to explain how and why we collect certain information online, and how we use that information. This statement also explains how you can prevent collection of certain information about yourself, if you choose. Please take a few moments to read our Privacy Statement.

Right to change policy

As TunaFish is constantly innovating and enhancing the products and services it provides to its users, this Privacy Statement will also continue to change to match the products and services we make available. As such, we reserve the right to change this statement to match the products and services we provide. If we make any material change to this statement, we will change the date at the bottom of this statement to reflect the effective date of the change. When you visit our site or use our products and services, we encourage you to check the date of this Privacy Statement to ensure you are aware of any updates.

However, regardless of how this Privacy Statement may change or evolve over time, TunaFish will not collect or maintain your private and personally identifiable information without your consent. Further, if you consent to give us your personal information, we will keep it confidential and will not sell, license or disclose your personal information to any third party without your consent, unless we are compelled to do so under the law or to comply with a court order.

If you have any questions about this Privacy Statement or other questions about privacy on the TunaFish website, please contact us at info@tnfsh.com.

Types of information we collect

Generally, you are free to browse the TunaFish website without submitting any personal information. We do not collect any of your personal information (such as a name, address or e-mail address), unless you fill out forms on our website, register for an account, or otherwise agree to submit to us such information. As part of such processes, you have the opportunity to decline further promotional materials or other notifications from us regarding special offers and information from TunaFish. Types of information collected on specific services on the TunaFish website are described in more detail below.

Registration on our site

TunaFish requires users who want to make a purchase, suggest a company and/or add a review to register for an account. In order to register, you must provide us your gender, first name, lastname, date of birth, city, country and a valid e-mail address. This allows us to protect our community from abusive postings and provides a verifiable point of contact should any (legal) questions arise.

IF YOU ARE UNDER 16 YEARS OF AGE you are not allowed to register for an account on the TunaFish website, or to provide any personal information on our website.

Newsletter Subscription

TunaFish offers an option to subscribe to a periodic newsletter regarding our company's activities, promotions, product announcements and news items. The only piece of information required is the user's e-mail address, which is only used to distribute the requested newsletter. You can "unsubscribe" from the newsletter at any time by sending an e-mail to unsubscribe@tnfsh.com with the subject line "NEWSLETTER UNSUBSCRIBE."

Cookies

TunaFish uses browser cookies only to facilitate your experience on the website. These cookies are small sections of code that our server sends to your browser and are stored on your hard drive. If you choose to accept these cookies, they enable us to recognize that your browser has previously visited and used our website and enables us to customize your website experience. An example of the customisation allowed by the use of such cookies is to retain your username and password so you don't have to re-enter them each time you visit. These cookies do not collect, store or maintain your private, personally identifiable information. You do not have to accept these cookies to visit or use the TunaFish website and you can choose to refuse our cookie, delete our cookie from your hard drive or turn off the cookie at any time by updating your user profile preferences.

Credit Card Information

TunaFish strives to maintain strict security for your private information. Our online payment systems are powered by Buckaroo (<http://www.buckaroo.nl>), providing a secure payment procedure. We do not maintain any credit card information at TunaFish, which means that you have to provide it each time you make a payment, but also means that your information is controlled by you alone.

Use and disclosure of your information

TunaFish uses the personal information it collects from forms you fill out on our website to:

- Allow users to access and use our products and services
- Supply users with installation instructions, download, access or use information, and technical support information
- Provide users of products and service on our site with information about special offers and promotions
- Improve our products and services by using statistical analysis and evaluation of user data

We use the anonymous information we collect from the other methods described above, such as cookie information, to collect broad demographic information about user trends, count the number of users of our products and services, to provide advertising services and to continue to enhance and improve our products and services.

We do not and will not disclose your private, personally identifiable information to any third party for any purpose without your prior consent. However, TunaFish reserves the right to disclose your personal information if required to do so by law, or in the good faith belief that such action is reasonably necessary to comply with legal process, respond to claims, or to protect the rights, property or safety of our company, its employees, customers, or the public.

All reasonable care is taken by our staff in handling your personal information to ensure its security both offline and online. It is our policy to destroy server access and any personal information provided during the technical support process upon completion of the technical support incident.

Changing or updating your personal information
